

2019 BOCES OF NEW YORK STATE: By the Numbers

Educator for All Ages & Abilities

▶ 96%

of seniors enrolled in CTE programs graduated from high school.

▶ 944

distance learning/online courses were available to students with the assistance of BOCES.

▶ 14,695

adult students improved their listening, speaking and literacy skills through English as a Second Language courses.

▶ 16,484

students' unique needs were supported in special education classrooms.

▶ 11,883

adult students broadened their employment options by taking High School Equivalency (HSE) courses.

▶ 3,451

students' academic, social and emotional needs were met in BOCES alternative education programs.

▶ 10,780

credits were earned by students enrolled in specialized high school programs.

Engine for Economic Growth

▶ 37,313

students developed college- and career-ready skills through CTE programs.

▶ 4,845

businesses served on BOCES CTE advisory councils.

▶ 20,731

adult students improved their job prospects by enrolling in BOCES workforce development courses.

▶ 444

businesses around the state partnered with BOCES to provide training for their staff.

▶ 2,545

students advanced their learning through programs that approach high school education in a unique way. New Tech High School, Early College High School, and P-TECH programs are closely linked with business and higher education.

▶ 1,271

students worked side-by-side with industry professionals in honors-level career courses through BOCES New Visions programs.

Facilitator of Collaboration & Efficiency

▶ 202,835

staff members were able to participate in professional development workshops through BOCES.

▶ 650

districts received support from the RICS in effectively utilizing student management systems.

▶ 702

cooperative bids were organized by BOCES in one year.

▶ 204,286

instructional computers (desktops, laptops, netbooks and tablets) were purchased by BOCES.

▶ 329

school districts currently participate in a BOCES coordinated health benefits consortium.

