- 4. With prompting and support, ask and answer questions about unknown words in a text.

5. Analyze the structure of texts, including how specific sentences, paragraphs, and larger portions of the text (e.g., a section, chapter, scene, or stanza) relate to each other and the whole.

- 5. Identify the front cover, back cover, and title page of a book.

6. Assess how point of view or purpose shapes the content and style of a text.

- 6. Name the author and illustrator of a text and define the role of each in presenting the

- 7. Participate in shared research and writing projects (e.g., explore a number of books by a favorite author and express opinions about them).

Responding to Literature

11. Develop personal, cultural, textual, and thematic connections within and across genres as they respond to texts through written, digital, and oral presentations, employing a variety of media and genres.

- 11. Create and/or present a poem, dramatization, art work, or personal response to a particular author or theme studied in class, with support as needed.

FOCUS CCLS:ELA & Literacy in History/Social Studies, Science, & Technical Subjects PreK–5, Kindergarten , Speaking and Listening

2. Integrate and evaluate information presented in diverse media and formats, including visually, quantitatively, and orally.

- 2. Confirm understanding of a text read aloud or information presented orally or through other media by asking and answering questions about key details and requesting clarification if something is not understood.

5. Make strategic use of digital media and visual displays of data to express information and enhance understanding of presentations.

- 5. Add drawings or other visual displays to descriptions as desired to provide additional detail.

6. Adapt speech to a variety of contexts and communicative tasks, demonstrating command of formal English when indicated or appropriate.

- 6. Speak audibly and express thoughts, feelings, and ideas clearly.

ideas or information in a text.

Print Concepts

1. Demonstrate understanding of the organization and basic features of print.

- a. Follow words from left to right, top to bottom, and page by page.
- b. Recognize that spoken words are represented in written language by specific sequences of letters.
- c. Understand that words are separated by spaces in print.
- d. Recognize and name all upper- and lowercase letters of the alphabet.

Phonological Awareness

2. Demonstrate understanding of spoken words, syllables, and sounds (phonemes).

- a. Recognize and produce rhyming words.
- b. Count, pronounce, blend, and segment syllables in spoken words.
- c. Blend and segment onsets and rimes of single-syllable spoken words.
- d. Isolate and pronounce the initial, medial vowel, and final sounds (phonemes) in three-phoneme (consonant-vowel-consonant, or CVC) words. (This does not include CVCs ending with /l/, /r/, or /x/.)
- e. Add or substitute individual sounds (phonemes) in simple, one-syllable words to make new words.

Phonics and Word Recognition

3. Know and apply grade-level phonics and word analysis skills in decoding words.

- a. Demonstrate basic knowledge of letter-sound correspondences by producing the primary or most frequent sound for each consonant. Associate the long and short sounds with the common spellings (graphemes) for the five major vowels.
- b. Associate the long and short sounds with the common spellings (graphemes) for the five major vowels.
- c. Read common high-frequency words by sight (e.g., the, of, to, you, she, my, is, are, do, does).

- d. Distinguish between similarly spelled words by identifying the sounds of the letters that differ.

Fluency

4. Read with sufficient accuracy and fluency to support comprehension.

- Read emergent-reader texts with purpose and understanding.

SUPPORTING CCLS:ELA & Literacy in History/Social Studies, Science, & Technical Subjects PreK-5, NYS: Kindergarten , Writing

3. Write narratives to develop real or imagined experiences or events using effective technique, well-chosen details, and well-structured event sequences.

- 3. Use a combination of drawing, dictating, and writing to narrate a single event or several loosely linked events, tell about the events in the order in which they occurred, and provide a reaction to what happened.

5. Develop and strengthen writing as needed by planning, revising, editing, rewriting, or trying a new approach.

- 5. With guidance and support from adults, respond to questions and suggestions from peers and add details to strengthen writing as needed.

6. Use technology, including the Internet, to produce and publish writing and to interact and collaborate with others.

- 6. With guidance and support from adults, explore a variety of digital tools to produce and publish writing, including in collaboration with peers.

8. Gather relevant information from multiple print and digital sources, assess the credibility and accuracy of each source, and integrate the information while avoiding plagiarism.

- 8. With guidance and support from adults, recall information from experiences or gather information from provided sources to answer a question.
